RE: Liberty Select Peanut Butter

Dear Valued Customer

As you are aware, there have been reports on various brands of peanut butter which are experiencing quality challenges

We at Bounty Brands Foods and Care would like to assure you that there are strict food safety and quality protocols in place to ensure our Liberty Select peanut butter meets all requirements

Aflatoxin testing on raw materials and finished product is performed by accredited laboratories.

Our records show that all Liberty Select peanut butter produced and supplied meet the required parameters.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any further enquiries.
